It takes you through the countryside, mountains, and the high plateau of Hardangervidda before arriving in Myrdal. From there, you board the famous Flåmsbana, a small train with an impressive gradient that brings you down to Flåm at the bottom of the fjord. It winds its way between the mountains and turquoise blue streams, offering a breathtaking landscape.

You are now in Flåm on the shores of the Sognefjord. Check-in at the hotel in the heart of the fjords. Dinner and overnight stay at the Fretheim hotel with fjord view or a similar accommodation.

In the evening, you may want to explore the Ægir Microbrewery, which has a warm and Viking-inspired atmosphere. This brewery is one of the best in the country and has won several international awards.

You will board a beautiful cruise on the famous Sognefjord. Departing from Flåm, you'll sail along the fjord to its mouth. You'll also have the opportunity to do some shopping in the many shops along the pedestrian streets in the city center.

The afternoon is free for you to soak in the atmosphere of the old port. Take a leisurely stroll along the fish market or wander through the alleyways lined with wooden houses. If you take the funicular to the top of Mount Fløyen, you can admire Bergen, the city of seven hills, from above.
