

Denmark, Stay at Comwell Hotels

From € 140
Year 2024

The Comwell Hotels is a Danish hotel chain comprising hotels and event venues in Denmark and Sweden. Each of these hotels boasts its own unique characteristics, ambiance, and atmosphere.

They offer everything from luxurious wellness stays and conference facilities to family vacations and romantic getaways. At Comwell, the emphasis is on creating a personal and authentic experience for guests, where they can relax and enjoy the beautiful nature and Danish culture.

AMBITIONS IN SUSTAINABILITY

At Comwell, they have a strong focus on sustainability. That's why they've released their first ESG report outlining specific areas of interest and goals. One of their objectives is to achieve carbon neutrality in their own operations by 2030 and across their entire value chain by 2040.

Zealand

Comwell Portside Copenhagen

Step into the lobby of Comwell Portside Copenhagen and immerse yourself in its vibrant atmosphere. Here, you'll find a blend of locals enjoying a fresh cup of coffee, freelancers in the open co-working space, and international guests mingling over cocktails. It's a Nordic rendition of a bustling Italian square—authentic, refined, and incomparable. Nestled in the heart of the thriving Nordhavn district, surrounded by water and boasting incredible access to everything a port city has to offer—just 20 minutes from Copenhagen Airport and 10 minutes from Copenhagen Central Station.

Comwell H.C Andersen Odense

Comwell H.C. Andersen Odense Hotel is located right in the city center, just a few minutes' walk from the train station, the pedestrian shopping street, the H.C. Andersen House, and other attractions. Whether you need accommodation for a private or business stay, Comwell H.C. Andersen Odense

Hotel is the ideal choice with 157 comfortable and modern rooms close to everything.

Comwell Kongebrogaarden

Kongebrogaarden is a very special place, steeped in peace, aesthetics, and atmosphere.

Since 1584, this location served as a point of service, passage, and transport for King Frederick II. Subsequently, the king's son, the famous Christian IV, also frequented this place. From 1812, Kongebrogaarden became an inn and later transformed into a restaurant.

Just a few days after the start of World War I, Danish soldiers were housed at Kongebrogaarden, also welcoming refugees arriving by boat on the coast: young men from southern Jutland fleeing German military service. During World War II, the place was a favored establishment for the Nazis who resided there.

In 2011, Comwell Hotels took ownership of Kongebrogaarden, and in 2018, the hotel was named the 'Best Luxury Hotel of the Year'.

Jutland
