

Faroe, Tórshavn Stay at Hotel Hafnia

Starting from € 85
Year 2024

The hotel opened its doors in 1951 and was called 'Hafnia.' Over the following decades, the hotel underwent renovations and expansions, gradually evolving into Hotel Hafnia—the largest hotel in the Faroe Islands, now meeting international standards.

At Hotel Hafnia, they are always ready to welcome their guests. Their reception is open 24/7. The chefs in their restaurant are skilled professionals who enjoy challenging themselves by cooking new dishes every day - from scratch, of course. They also host events and dinners in their event spaces. At Café Kaspar, they offer good coffee, drinks, and light meals in a modern yet cozy setting. Takeaway orders are also available at Café Kaspar and Restaurant Hafnia.

Dining

Food and beverages are at the heart of the experience. As hosts, they strive to offer catering of the highest quality. Buying local and environmentally-friendly ingredients, while minimizing waste, is part of their ethos, their everyday. Everyone is welcome for breakfast, delicious café dishes, a tapas meal, à la carte, or a carefully crafted cocktail in the evening.

LUNCH BUFFET

A lunch buffet is served on the 1st floor from Monday to Friday from 11:30 AM to 1:30 PM. Warm dishes, potatoes/rice and sauce, smoked salmon, shrimp, egg and herring, fish fillet with remoulade, various salads, homemade soup, bread and butter, and various homemade desserts.

BISTROT 1. HAEDD

Bistro 1. Hædd combines unpretentious hospitality with good cuisine to offer you enjoyable dining experiences. At Bistro 1. Hædd, they offer both set menus with three courses and à la carte dishes.

RESTAURANT KATRINA

Charm and history, first-class cuisine, a relaxed and welcoming atmosphere. Restaurant Katrina is a warm place located in the heart of the city. It offers cuisine inspired by tapas style, as well as Faroese culinary tradition and everything that the nature and sea of the Faroe Islands have to offer. In addition to being a restaurant, we also have meeting and banquet rooms.

CAFÉ KASPAR

Here, you can enjoy a light meal such as a club sandwich, salad, cake, and, not to forget, our popular Kaspar bagels.

HUSAGARÐUR

Húsagarður combines unpretentious hospitality with good cuisine to offer you enjoyable dining experiences. The menu includes a set three-course and five-course option, as well as à la carte dishes. In this kitchen, chefs draw inspiration from Nordic cuisine to create dishes served by our attentive staff. Each dish is thoughtfully paired with a selection from the extensive wine cellar, Gilið, featuring a wide range of wines from around the world. Additionally, a special non-alcoholic drink menu has been crafted, including various cold-brewed teas and ciders.

RESTAURANT PANORAMA

Savor a delightful meal at the Panorama restaurant while enjoying the urban landscapes of Tórshavn from the heights of Hotel Hafnia. A wide selection of fresh Faroese fish and seafood is offered, accompanied by an enticing range of side dishes, desserts, and cheeses.

PETIT-DEJEUNER

Breakfast is served from 7:00 AM to 10:00 AM from Monday to Saturday, and from 7:00 AM to 11:00 AM on Saturday and Sunday.

At Hotel Hafnia, they put a lot of effort into preparing a high-quality breakfast. The breakfast is made using as many local and environmentally-friendly ingredients as possible. The morning bread is freshly baked, and they strive to minimize any food waste. They want their guests' day to start in the best possible way. This great start to your day is also available as room service for you to enjoy in the tranquility of your own room. It is possible for non-staying guests to have breakfast at the hotel. It is also possible to order breakfast in your room at an extra cost.
