Stay at the Seward Windsong Lodge

Starting from € 100
Year 2024

Located along the Resurrection River, at the edge of the Chugach National Forest, near Exit Glacier, the Windsong Lodge is a tranquil retreat designed to showcase the wild beauty of Alaska and its unparalleled eco-adventures. While the bustling port of Seward and the vast protected expanse of Kenai Fjords National Park are just minutes away, Windsong's peaceful setting and unique culinary experiences provide a quiet and comfortable escape after a day of exhilarating exploration.

Accommodation

Escape to Windsong Lodge, an Alaska-inspired oasis nestled along the Resurrection River. The spacious standard accommodations include charming rooms, with or without a terrace, and suites that can accommodate up to five people. The lodge's upscale rooms and suites feature private outdoor spaces and contemporary decor reimagined in an Alaskan aesthetic.

Each room and suite comes with a private bathroom, a hairdryer, a coffee maker, a refrigerator, a flat-screen TV, a telephone, and complimentary Wi-Fi.

Options :

Standard Room : Designed to accommodate up to four people, the charming and spacious standard rooms at Windsong Lodge feature Alaska-style log furnishings and two queen-size beds

Dining

Discover three delightful culinary experiences.

The Resurrection Roadhouse, a gourmet restaurant specializing in regional-inspired cuisine and fresh Alaskan seafood, is open daily for breakfast and dinner and welcomes reservations for special events or parties with six guests or more.

Looking to refuel after your adventure ? Grab a table at the Goliath Bar & Grill for casual shared plates, pizzas, portable dishes, and a refreshing pint of craft beer from Alaska.

If you're leaving early and need a quick grab-and-go breakfast, stop by Mt Hunter Coffee Co. in the main lobby.
