

Canada, British Columbia Wild Escape at Sea Wolf Lodge

From € 3875
Summer 2025

Sea Wolf Lodge: A unique immersion in the heart of nature and Kwakwaka'wakw culture

The Canadian escape: nature, culture and adventure

Located in the heart of the majestic Great Bear Rainforest, on a 15-hectare property established in 1984, Sea Wolf Lodge invites guests to reconnect with nature and discover the rich Kwakwaka'wakw culture. This establishment in harmony with its environment offers comfortable, rustic cabins, ideal for recharging your batteries after a day of adventure.

The meals, made from local ingredients, allow you to savour the riches of Canada's north-west coast while supporting sustainable practices.

More than just a holiday, it's a total immersion in nature and culture, offering a unique connection with this exceptional environment.

The saty lasts 4 days and 3 nights and is organised into two groups each week: the first from Sunday to Wednesday, and the second from Wednesday to Saturday.

The program

Group 1: Sunday to Wednesday

Sunday: Arrival and Cultural Exploration

- 12:15 PM: Guests arrive at the Sea Wolf Adventures office in Port McNeill for check-in and orientation.
- 1:00 PM: Depart by boat to Alert Bay.
- 1:30 PM – 4:30 PM: Engage in cultural activities in Alert Bay, including:
 - U'mista Cultural Centre: Explore exhibits on the potlatch system and Kwakwaka'wakw traditions.
 - Culturally Modified Trees: Learn about traditional resource use and sustainable practices.
- 4:30 PM: Depart for the lodge.
