Where to stay in Longyearbyen ?

Whether you choose an intimate and luxurious setting or a more modern and practical one, Longyearbyen's hotels will delight you with their views and privileged access to nature.

Funken Lodge

5-star Boutique Hotel

Funken Lodge is the boutique hotel with an elegant yet relaxed atmosphere that will fulfill all your luxury desires after a day in the Arctic cold. This 5-star property is located in Haugen, a hill just a few minutes' walk from Longyearbyen, offering breathtaking views of the town, the fjord, the mountains, and the glaciers of Longyearbreen and Larsbreen. Once inside, you'll quickly forget you're on an archipelago near the North Pole! Every detail reflects a refined and welcoming design: sophisticated décor and cuisine, meticulous attention to detail, and attentive service will make your stay unforgettable. In addition to its stylish bar and restaurant, Funken Lodge also boasts its own champagne and wine cellar.

Radisson Blu Polar Hotel

4-star hotel in a central location

The ideal choice for families or groups of friends or colleagues. With modern amenities and a central location, everything is in place for a successful stay. Located in the heart of Longyearbyen, with the famous Hiorthfjellet mountain as a backdrop, this hotel sits at the crossroads of nature and Arctic urban life. You can choose between standard rooms and suites, some located in the annex. Feel free to relax with a book or meet friends in the modern, welcoming lobby, or even unwind in the sauna and hot tub! Finally, the restaurant and pub are as popular with hotel guests as they are with locals.
