Experience premium hospitality on Svalbard at Funken Lodge, a 5* boutique hotel in Longyearbyen. Offering elegant exclusivity and a relaxing atmosphere, it's the perfect place to stay if you want to add a little luxury to your trip.

About Funken Lodge

Funken Lodge is located on Haugen, a hill just a few minutes' walk from the centre of Longyearbyen. From this vantage point, you'll see beautiful views over the town, fjords and mountains.

Thoughtful interior design, excellent amenities and first-class service make this boutique hotel a gem. From the moment you step inside, you'll experience a warm welcome. You'll even be greeted with slippers – a unique Svalbard custom since the archipelago's coal mining days.

Beyond the lobby, you'll find Funktionærmessen Restaurant, where you can dine on gourmet food. Champagne and wine tasting sessions take place in the cellar, which once housed 'Nordpolet', Svalbard's first alcohol store. Cocktails are on the menu at Funken Bar, where each drink tells a story of people and places significant to Svalbard.

Funken Lodge was built in 1946 to house the coal company's administrative staff and miners. The building has evolved over the years, surviving a devastating avalanche in 1953 and later being transformed into the luxurious hotel it is today. It offers various room types with en-suite bathrooms. Additionally, there's an on-site gym and sauna to elevate your stay with rejuvenating wellness activities.

Rooms & Suites

The hotel offers 88 exclusive rooms and suites with contemporary design. Ranging from single and twin to double rooms, there is a perfect fit for everyone. The rooms are spacious and comfortable, providing a perfect retreat after a day full of outdoor adventures.

For you who value exceptional views, the superior view rooms offer extra lovely vistas, either towards the charming town or the mountain Platåfjellet. If you desire more space, the junior suites and suites are ideal.

Each room is thoughtfully equipped with a minibar, coffee machine, bathrobe, and slippers. And, to start your day right, breakfast is always included in your stay.
